[64 FR 69878, Dec. 14, 1999]

Subpart C—National Technical Assistance, Training, Research, and Evaluation

§ 307.9 Purpose and scope.

(a) The purposes of National Technical Assistance, Training, Research, and Evaluation projects are:

(1) To determine the causes of excessive unemployment, underemployment, outmigration or other problems indicating economic distress in areas and regions of the Nation;

(2) To assist in formulating and implementing new economic development tools and national, State, and local programs that will raise employment and income levels and otherwise produce solutions to problems resulting from the above conditions;

(3) To evaluate the effectiveness and economic impact of programs, projects, and techniques used to alleviate economic distress and promote economic development, and

(4) To assist in disseminating information about effective programs, projects and techniques that alleviate economic distress and promote economic development.

(b) EDA may during the course of the year, identify specific national technical assistance, training, research or evaluation projects it wishes to have conducted. Ordinarily, EDA specifies these projects in a NOFA, which also provides the appropriate point of contact and address.

(c) National technical assistance, research, training, and evaluation funds may not be used to start or expand a private business.

§ 307.10 Application evaluation criteria.

EDA selects projects for national technical assistance, training, research or evaluation grant awards according to the general application evaluation criteria set forth in part 304 of this chapter and the extent, as appropriate, the project:

13 CFR Ch. III (1–1–00 Edition)

(a) Does not depend upon further EDA or other Federal funding assistance to achieve results;

(b) Strengthens the capability of local, State, or national organizations and institutions, including nonprofit economic development groups, to undertake and promote effective economic development programs targeted to people and areas of distress;

(c) Benefits severely distressed areas;

(d) Helps to diversify distressed economies; and

(e) Demonstrates innovative approaches to stimulating economic development in distressed areas.

§ 307.11 Award and grant rate requirements.

(a) EDA will provide assistance for the period of time required to complete the project scope of work. Normally, this does not exceed twelve months.

(b) If the project is regional or national in scope, EDA may determine that the requirement that public or private nonprofit organizations must act in cooperation with officials of a political subdivision of a State is satisfied by the nature of the project;

(c) Grant rate:

(1) The maximum Federal grant rate for a project under this subpart is:

(i) 50 percent, except as supplemented as provided in § 301.4(b); or

(ii) Up to and including 100 percent, if the project is not feasible without, and merits, a reduction or waiver of the non-Federal share required under the rate provided in § 301.4(b) of this chapter.

(2) A project is eligible for a supplemental grant increasing the Federal share up to and including 100 percent when the applicant is able to demonstrate that:

(i) The project is addressing major causes of distress in the area serviced and requires the unique characteristics of the applicant, which will not participate in the program if it must provide all or part of a 50 percent non-Federal share; or

(ii) The project is for the benefit of local, State, regional, or national economic development efforts, and will be of no or only incidental benefit to the recipient.

§ 308.1 Purpose and scope.

(a) The purpose of economic adjustment grants is to address the needs of communities experiencing adverse economic changes that may occur suddenly or over time, including but not limited to those caused by:

(1) Military base closures or realignments, defense contractor reductions in force, or Department of Energy defense-related funding reductions,

(2) Disasters or emergencies, in areas with respect to which a major disaster or emergency has been declared under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5121 et seq.),

(3) International trade,

(4) Fishery failures, in areas with respect to which a determination that there is a commercial fishery failure has been made under sec. 312(a) of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C. 1861a(a)),

(5) Long-term economic deterioration, or

(6) Loss of a major community employer.

(b) Economic Adjustment grants are intended to enhance a distressed community's ability to compete economically by stimulating private investment in targeted economic sectors through use of tools that:

(1) Help organize and carry out a CEDS;

(2) Expand the capacity of public officials and economic development organizations to work effectively with businesses;

(3) Assist in overcoming major obstacles identified in the strategy;

(4) Enable communities to plan and coordinate: The use of Federal and other resources available to support economic recovery, development of regional economies, or recovery from natural or other disasters; and

(5) Encourage the development of innovative public/private approaches to economic restructuring and revitalization.

[64 FR 5429, Feb. 3, 1999, as amended at 64 FR 69879, Dec. 14, 1999]

§ 308.2 Criteria.

(a) A grant may be made under this part only when the project will help the area to meet a special need arising from actual or threatened severe unemployment or economic adjustment problems resulting from severe changes in economic conditions; and the area for which a project is to be carried out has a strategy and the project is consistent with the strategy, except that the strategy requirement shall not apply to planning projects.

(b) The term "special need" in paragraph (a) of this section means conditions of unemployment, per capita income, or special need that qualify an area for eligibility under § 301.2(b).

(c) Additional criteria, and/or priority consideration factors for assistance, may be set forth in a NOFA.
